

R.E.C.L.A.I.M. Video Filming Guide

Mind & Body Reset · Simple scripts for short Meta ads · Landing page: mindandbodyresetcoach.com/reclaim-invite Who's on camera: Lee Anne and her daughter Sara, together in front of your usual backdrop— warm, natural, mother–daughter energy. Lee Anne does most of the talking. Sara can stand with her, smile, nod, and (if she wants) open one short line on Video B. No need to “perform sales”—just be yourselves.

What these videos are for (in plain English):

People who already know you a little—they visited the site, got the free Snack Hack guide, or watched your other videos. You're inviting them to the full program: R.E.C.L.A.I.M. at the intro rate of $597 (usually $999), for the first 10 women. The main ask: tap Learn More and save your intro spot.

1. Please read this first

These ads are not about giving away another free PDF. They're also not mainly about booking a free call.

On the page they'll land on, the main button is: “Yes — Lock My Intro Spot ($597)” (secure checkout). The free fit call is still there if someone isn't ready—but it's a gentle second option, not what we lead with.

What we want most	What it is
Main ask	Join R.E.C.L.A.I.M. at the intro rate · $597 (or $200 deposit on the page)
If they're not ready	Free 30-minute fit call is available on the same page—no pressure

Who will see these: women who already connected with you somehow. They're not cold strangers, so it's okay to gently name the program and the intro price.

2. How to film (simple notes)

- Length: about 20–30 seconds each. Short is better.
- Phone orientation: vertical (upright) if you can—works best for Instagram/Facebook.
- Look: same nice backdrop you already use; bright and calm.

- Who talks: mostly Lee Anne. Sara stands with her, warm and natural. On Video B, Sara may open with one line if she likes.
- First few seconds: look at the camera and start with the opening line right away (no long hello).
- Words on screen: many people watch without sound—we'll add simple captions from the "On-screen text" column.
- How to end: "Tap Learn More and save your intro spot."
- Price (please keep accurate): intro $597 · usually $999 · first 10 women. No extra discounts.
- Optional gentle line (only if it feels natural on one take): "If you're not ready to join yet, there's also a free fit call on the page."

3. What to record first

1. Video A — "If you got our free snack guide..." (start here)
2. Video B — "If trying harder was enough..."
3. Video C — Intro price in the first line ($597 / $999 / first 10)

Optional later: Video D (mentions the $200 deposit option).

4. Scripts (say it in your own words if easier)

These are guides, not word-for-word exams. Warm and natural beats perfect. If a phrase doesn't sound like you, soften it—just keep the meaning and the closing invite.

VIDEO A — Best one to film first (~22–28 seconds)
