

R.E.C.L.A.I.M. Retargeting Video Brief

Mind & Body Reset · For Lee Anne (and on-camera partner) · Landing page: mindandbodyresetcoach.com/reclaim-invite

One-sentence job of these ads:

Warm women who already know us (site visitors, Snack Hack downloaders, video watchers) → R.E.C.L.A.I.M. is open at the intro rate ($597, usually $999, first 10) → tap to lock your intro spot.

1. Direction (read this first)

These are not free-PDF ads and not free-call ads as the main pitch. The landing page primary button is “Yes — Lock My Intro Spot ($597)” (Stripe). Free fit call is only a secondary escape hatch on the page (“Not ready to enroll today?”).

Priority	CTA	What it is
Primary	Lock intro spot · $597	Stripe checkout (full) or $200 deposit path on page
Secondary	Free fit call	Only if they’re not ready to enroll — do not make this the ad’s punchline

Who sees these ads: people who already visited the site, downloaded the Snack Hack guide, and/or watched ~50–75% of prior ad videos. They are warm — they can handle price and a direct enroll ask.

	Cold / Snack Hack ads	These RT ads → reclaim-invite
Ask	Free PDF guide	Enroll at $597 intro
Emotion	“I see you at 9pm”	“You’re ready for the full path”
CTA line	Send me the guide	Lock my intro spot
Do NOT	—	Pitch downloading the free guide again

2. Production notes (how to shoot)

- Length: 18–28 seconds each (one optional 45–60s later if you want).
- Format: Vertical 9:16 preferred (Reels/Stories/Feed); square 1:1 if easy as a second export.
- Look: Same setup that works for you — both of you in front of the nice backdrop; bright, clean, calm.
- Who speaks: Lee Anne leads. Partner can open one hook or stand beside / nod — don’t split every line.
- First 3–5 seconds: Face to camera, strong hook. No logo card. No “Hey guys.” Many people watch muted — put key words on screen.
- Captions: On for every video (burned-in or Meta auto + check).
- End line (primary): “Tap Learn More and lock your intro spot.”

- Price (accurate): Intro $597 · usually $999 · first 10 women (or until cohort window — page says through early August framing). Don't invent deeper discounts.
- Optional soft line (only on 1 of 4 videos, not required): "Not ready to enroll? Free fit call is on the page."

3. Shoot list — record these 3 first

1. Video A — "If you grabbed our free snack guide..." (best first cut)
2. Video B — "If willpower worked, you'd already be done."
3. Video C — Price in the hook ($597 / $999 / first 10)

Optional later: Video D (deposit bridge $200).

6. Do / Don’t

Do

- Lead with enroll / intro rate
- Name R.E.C.L.A.I.M. + 6 weeks private
- Say $597 vs $999 and first 10
- End on “lock your intro spot”
- Sound calm, direct, no hype-bro energy
- Match the landing page offer exactly

Don’t

- Pitch “download the free guide” again
- Make free call the main CTA
- Hide the price on warm retargeting
- Promise medical results / weight guarantees
- Invent discounts below $597
- Long intros before the hook

7. Meta setup (for the ads person)

- Campaign name idea: RT – Reclaim Invite – Warm
- Landing (only): <https://mindandbodyresetcoach.com/reclaim-invite>
- Budget: ~$8–12/day to start (freed from cutting cold evergreen)
- Audiences (OR, not AND): site visitors (30–60d), Snack Hack engagers, video 50%+ viewers; exclude purchasers
- Stop or repoint any old RT still sending people to Snack Hack PDF download
- Test order: Video A + B first; add C when ready
- Success metric: enrollments / checkouts and discovery calls from the page — not PDF leads
